Moo-ving Forward

Thanks to you, cows and hope are coming back to Namwianga

There's a buzz of excitement and heartfelt gratitude sweeping through the Namwianga Mission Farm community. After months of struggle and uncertainty, hope has come home, bringing with it the gentle moo-ing of cows and the promise of brighter days.

Just last year, the farm faced a bleak reality. A relentless drought left the farm pastures parched and forced the Mission to say a heartbreaking goodbye to 100 cows. They had to be sold or given away because there was nothing for them to eat.

But then, something amazing happened. Our incredible Zambia Mission Fund supporters became aware of the need and generously provided the funds to bring 100 cows back to the Namwianga Farm. Thanks to your generosity, there is even some extra funding to buy supplemental food, medicine, and fencing materials—everything our bovine buddies need to thrive!

What does this mean for Namwianga? The new cows will produce more calves, more fresh milk, and eventually more beef to feed students. It means there will be new income from milk and beef sales—income that will keep Namwianga Mission thriving for years to come.

Douglas Muliti is Namwianga's new farm manager. He is beyond excited about the new cows. "I would like to give thanks to the donors for the money that was sent to purchase cows. We will soon be providing income for the Mission. Beyond Namwianga, we will be providing beef for the nation of Zambia. We are very happy and will work hard to use your funds wisely."

From every corner of the Namwianga Mission Farm—whether on two legs or four—a heartfelt thank you rings out. Thank you for bringing cows—and hope—back home.

Zambia Medical Mission: Healing and Hope

Because of donors like you, Zambia Medical Mission was able to bring healing, hope, and spiritual nourishment to thousands of people in July.

- 7550 patients were treated during 6 days of clinics
- The "Pills on Wheels" pharmacy distributed 24,000 prescriptions
- More than 700 expectant moms received Clean Delivery Kits
- 232 people were baptized

Your generosity has ripple effects that extend far beyond this medical mission. The lives you've helped save, the comfort you've provided, and the hope you've instilled will continue to impact individuals, communities, and congregations for years to come.

A Harvest of Thanks: Gratitude and Giving Back

Farmers are showing their gratitude for your food relief help by donating grain and seeds from this year's harvest

Something very special is happening at Namwianga Mission. Farmers are bringing bags of sunflower seeds and maize from their recent harvest to donate. Each bag is a heartfelt way to say thank you and to pass on the kindness they have received.

The recent devastating drought left many farmers with no seed to plant for the next season. Namwianga's Food Relief team used donor funds to distribute maize, cowpeas, and sunflower seeds to farmers so they could grow food for their families. Now those farmers who received seeds are showing their gratitude by giving back!

So far an incredible 1250 bags of maize, each weighing 50 kg (100 lbs), have been donated back to the Mission. Other farmers are bringing bags of sunflower seeds.

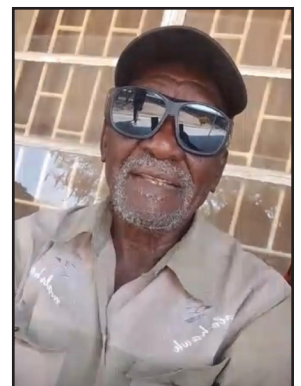

The food relief team is now distributing the donated food to communities where the harvest was poor this year, with a particular focus on widows and individuals with disabilities.

Thank you to every food relief donor who made the seed distribution possible! You created a cycle of generosity that continues to feed the hungry.

Cataract Surgeries: A Miracle in Sight

Cedious collapsed to his knees, tears streaming from his newly healed eyes. "I can't believe this. This is a miracle seeing my wife's face again after so long. And I'm going home to see the faces of my grandchildren who I've only known by name."

For over a decade, Cedious lived in darkness. "I lost my sight 12 years ago," he shared. "I felt useless. I could not do any work, I could not farm or do anything. Even walking became a challenge because sometimes I would get hurt from falling." The Zambia Medical Mission team referred Cedious to Namwianga Mission Hospital for cataract surgery.

The moment the bandages came off, everything changed. Overwhelmed, Cedious said, "I want to thank the donors and everyone who played a part in this exercise. I wish they were all here right now so I could fall on my knees and thank them."

Because of your support, Cedious can see his wife's face again, walk without fear, and return to his life with hope and dignity. Thank you for making miracles like this possible!

Tonga Bibles: “A Blessing from God”

Since his baptism seven years ago, Joshua Moono has walked 12 km (7 miles) every Sunday to attend church. He longed to study and share God’s word but didn’t have a Bible of his own. That changed when the Namwianga Evangelism and Spiritual Growth team gave him a Tonga language Bible.

“I am so happy to finally have my own Bible to study at home with my wife and children. It’s a big blessing from God,” Joshua said. Your support provides native-language Bibles for Zambians like Joshua who are eager to learn God’s word. Thank you!

Creating Compassionate Healers

Sponsorships needed for nurses in training

Imagine the impact of a caring nurse at the bedside—offering not just medical skill, but also the compassion and kindness of Christ. At Namwianga Mission College of Nursing, young men and women are answering the call to train as Christian nurses who will make a difference.

But right now, for some dedicated students, this dream is at risk because they do not have sponsorships.

Through the Student Sponsorship Program, you have the power to change a life. By sponsoring a nursing student, you not only provide tuition, fees, and living expenses, but you also invest in Zambia’s future by helping to prepare healthcare workers with a heart to serve in Jesus’ name.

A full nursing sponsorship is $170 per month or $2,040 per year. Your ongoing support, or a one-time gift in any amount, will make a profound difference for a student in need.

Donate today by using the enclosed form or by giving online at zambiamission.org/nurses.
